

BERLIN 13-15 JULY 2018

Neema Majmudar and Surya Tahora are leading a non-residential Vedanta course in Berlin-Steglitz. This course will be an extraordinary and inspiring opportunity to learn and practice the fundamental principles and methods of Vedanta with two great teachers. If you are interested in taking your spiritual questions further and would like to understand your true nature, the nature of the mind and of the world, this seminar will be of great value. Freedom and lasting happiness are the result of this knowledge. The course is not merely an academic or intellectual exercise. It is a dynamic traditional teaching that engages the participants in such a way that it produces insight into the nature of reality.

The Bhagavad Gita

For centuries the Bhagavad Gita has remained the single most influential spiritual text shaping thought and life of many spiritual seekers across the globe. It is a dialogue between Lord Krishna and the prince-warrior Arjuna in the middle of the battle field, when Arjuna found himself questioning the way to gain fulfilment and the choice of action. Lord Krishna reveals to us through Arjuna the most attractive way to view life and recognize our connection with the universe. This understanding enables us to see life as a great opportunity to utilize our talents, skills and contribute to the well-being of ourselves and others; and in the process, free ourselves from guilt, hurt and fears.

The Teachers

Neema Majmudar & Surya Tahora have studied with Swami Dayananda Saraswati, renowned scholar of Vedanta. Both have gone through intensive courses of Vedanta studying texts such as the Upanishads, and many other scriptures in great depth with the commentaries of Śankara, and the Pānini system of Sanskrit grammar. They have been teaching Vedanta in India & abroad for several years. Their ability to teach authentic Vedanta in a lively, humorous and empathetic way is exceptional. The unfoldment of the wisdom of the Gita is combined with story telling, traditional chanting and guided meditations.

Price

Course price is €40. This covers our expenses for venue, course material and travel expenses of the teachers. The fee for the teachers is not yet built into the price as Neema and Surya have graciously agreed to do the course on a donation basis. Donations are voluntary and may be given at the end of the course. We suggest a donation of 100-200 € per person.
